Tennessee's Joshua Dobbs and Texas' Malik Jefferson Named Walter Camp National FBS Players of the Week, presented by Generation UCAN

New Haven, CT – The Walter Camp Football Foundation has announced the Football Bowl Subdivision National Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week, presented by Generation UCAN, for games ending October 10.

About the Award: This is the 12th year that the Walter Camp Football Foundation will honor one offensive and one defensive player as its national Football Bowl Subdivision player of the week during the regular season. Recipients are selected by a panel of national media members and administered by the Foundation.

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

JOSHUA DOBBS, TENNESSEE

Junior, Quarterback, Alpharetta, GA/Alpharetta

Joshua Dobbs accounted for 430 yards (312 passing, 118 rushing) and five touchdowns as Tennessee (3-3) defeated 19th-ranked Georgia, 38-31. Dobbs completed 25-of-42 passes and threw three scoring passes, while rushing for two more scores in the victory.

Notes: Joshua Dobbs is the fourth Tennessee player to earn Walter Camp National Player of the Week honors since 2004, and the first Volunteer honoree since former quarterback Erik Ainge (Oct. 8, 2006).

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

MALIK JEFFERSON, TEXAS

Freshman, Linebacker, Mesquite, TX/Poteet

Malik Jefferson recorded six tackles (5 solo) and two quarterback sacks as Texas defeated 10th-ranked Oklahoma, 24-17, in the Red River Showdown. With the win, the Longhorns improved to 2-4, 1-2 in the Big 12.

Notes: Malik Jefferson is the seventh Texas player to earn Walter Camp National Player of the Week honors since 2004, and the first ever defensive honoree.

Generation UCAN (@GenUCAN) is healthy sports nutrition powered by a unique, slow-burning carbohydrate called SuperStarch. UCAN's drink mix provides steady energy, allows you to burn more fat for fuel during workouts, and helps you recover efficiently compared to sugary sports drinks or a high carbohydrate meal. Walter Camp, "The Father of American football," first selected an All-America team in 1889. Camp – a former Yale University athlete and football coach – is also credited with developing play from scrimmage, set plays, the numerical assessment of goals and tries and the restriction of play to eleven men per side. The Walter Camp Football Foundation (www.waltercamp.org, @WalterCampFF) – a New Haven-based all-volunteer group – was founded in 1967 to perpetuate the ideals of Camp and to continue the tradition of selecting annually an All-America team. The Foundation is a member of the National College Football Awards Association (NCFAA). The NCFAA was founded in 1997 as a coalition of the major collegiate football awards to protect, preserve and enhance the integrity, influence and prestige of the game's predominant awards. The NCFAA encourages professionalism and the highest standards for the administration of its member awards and the selection of their candidates and recipients.
